Announcement

Ken Schaner and David Lubitz are pleased to announce that Leslie Brown will join our firm on June 2, 2014 as Counsel to the firm. Leslie brings to the firm fifteen years of expertise in counseling taxable and tax exempt entities in a wide variety of matters.

Leslie graduated with honors with a degree in Industrial Management from Carnegie Mellon University in 1997 and received her J.D with honors from The George Washington University Law School in 2000.

Before joining Schaner & Lubitz Leslie was Counsel at Rees Broome, PC from 2005-2014, where she served as outside general counsel to numerous community associations across the D.C.-area. During that period she advised clients on fair housing issues, structural defect claims, telecommunications agreements, vendor and license agreements and other service provider contracts.

Prior to her time at Rees Broome, Leslie was a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Lynn J. Bush of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims from 2003-2005 where she assisted Judge Bush on a wide variety of government contract, eminent domain and tax cases that came before the court.

From 1999-2003, prior to her judicial clerkship, Leslie was an associate with the Washington D.C. law firm, Shaw Pittman, LLP and served as a member of that firm's corporate transactional and insurance coverage law groups.

Since 2012, Leslie has been an adjunct professor at The George Washington University Law School.

Leslie is a uniquely qualified lawyer of the highest caliber who shares our philosophy of offering clients experienced, efficient counsel and top-notch legal expertise. We are delighted to welcome her to the firm and look forward to you meeting and working with her.
